Oct 3, 2016

Shore Lodge, McCall ID - Doug Dvorak will be keynote speaker for the West Central Mountains Economic Summit presented by Valley County Economic Development Council.

The West Central Mountains Economic Summit brings experts in economics and community development together to leverage a national award winning economic development plan. The Economic Summit will focus on critical areas that impact the community. These areas include, Jobs, Housing, Transportation & Infrastructure, Education, Culture & Recreation, Health & Well-Being & Regional Communication. For more information, or to register for the Summit you can visit www.valleycountyedc.org/summit.

Doug Dvorak is a keynote speaker with a strong background in communications, marketing and sales. Collaborative Regional Communications plays a critical role to the Valley County Economic Development Council's community. Sound regional communication leads to better housing, more jobs, improved education, culture and recreation.

Doug is also a master motivator and motivational speaker. By researching and studying his audience and the issues they want and need to address he pulls facts and draws from personal experience to create stories that his audience can relate to. By using highly relatable content and targeted examples he gets the audience mentally stimulated which opens them up to take in deeper messages throughout his presentation.

Doug speaks over 75 times per year and has traveled to over 100 different countries. He has remained largely successful by studying his clients and connecting with his audience on a deeper level using tailored content. Doug is also a graduate of the second city comedy school and incorporates humor appropriately into his presentations.

For the Economic Summit Doug Dvorak will present unique and fresh content to clarify goals for the collaborative regional communication efforts. Doug's program is titled "Gather Round The Campfire" and it will motivate/inspire attendees to incorporate his messages into the Economic Summits community for many months and years to come.

Doug has a Master of Business Degree in Marketing Management, as well as a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Business Administration. He is also a member of the National Speaker Association and the IFPS (International Federation for Professional Speakers). He is a Certified Speaking Professional (CSP), which is only provided to the best professionals in the business.

He has written countless articles and books to help motivate individuals and companies everywhere and uses his challenges to better himself and help others better themselves.
