

Doug Dvorak was a professional speaker to work with and provided good communication throughout the planning process. He also provided the Division of Behavioral Health with a great speech on maintaining motivation both in your personal and professional life, especially during this difficult time. While it can be hard to transfer a presentation to a virtual format, Doug Dvorak still offered a fun and interactive speech for our staff members.

Megan Schuelke

Idaho Dept. of Health & Welfare
Division of Behavioral Health

