

Doug Dvorak Speaks Live to Enthusiastic B.A. Harris Audience

Chicago, Illinois, January 18, 2021: Last week, Doug Dvorak presented his unique brand of motivational speaking to an enthusiastic live audience for the first time in almost a year.

The well-known and well-regarded speaker provided the excited crowd at the accounting firm of B.A. Harris in Boise, ID with an engaging motivational and change management keynote at their annual Tax Season Kickoff Meeting.

Dvorak was also excited as this was his first in-person keynote since the start of the first COVID lockdown in March 2020.

Typically, Dvorak is on the road more than he is at home as he has delivered more than 1,000 motivational keynote presentations and workshops to over a million people on five continents during his storied career.

Dvorak's motivational keynotes engage individuals and help them improve performance by giving them applicable techniques and tools they can immediately begin putting to use.

Additionally, within his keynotes, he discusses the three pillars of leadership which include purpose, passion and vision. He also discusses servant leadership strategies, in which individuals in leadership positions can achieve authority by better understanding and implementing core concepts of what he calls servant leadership strategies, including empathy, listening, foresight and awareness.

Dvorak helps teams work together by encouraging them to have fun without sacrificing efficiency and productivity, resulting in improved overall morale, increases in productivity and reductions in overall turnover.
