

Doug Dvorak to Speak LIVE to Boise State Women's Volleyball Team

Chicago, Illinois, March 12, 2021: Hall of Fame motivational speaker Doug Dvorak is pleased to announce he will speak live and in-person to the Boise State Women's Volleyball Team on Friday, March 19, 2021.

The world-renowned orator - who has delivered more than 1,000 motivational keynote presentations and workshops in more than 100 countries - will work directly with the Boise State players and coaches to help them prepare for their upcoming season with his personal brand of motivational speaking.

Shawn Garus – Boise State's winningest volleyball coach and the current head coach of the women's program had this to say:

"As a college coach, I am always looking for ways to help my program reach its potential. Bringing in Doug is the next step to helping us reach our goals. I believe his style of presenting will connect well with my student athletes and ultimately lead to enhanced individual and team success."

Dvorak's workshops on leadership engage individuals and improve their performance by giving them techniques and tools they can immediately use. Additionally, he talks about the three pillars of leadership – Purpose, Passion and Vision – and servant leadership strategies in which individuals in positions of power can achieve authority by better understanding and implementing core concepts such as empathy, listening, foresight and awareness.

In his team building workshop, Dvorak discusses issues such as: How successful teams work together; How to have fun without sacrificing efficiency and productivity; How to improve morale; and, How to improve results.
